RE: Proceeding 16-106 - Protecting the Privacy of Customers of Broadband and Other
Telecommunications Services

Dear Chairman Wheeler,

You are one of the primary reasons I will be voting for Donald Trump this year. You recently proposed new "privacy" _ regulations to protect consumers from online companies except Google.

Why does Google get a pass? They know more about us than any company in the world. More about our personal shopping habits; what we watch on the Internet; and how we live your lives.

Your so-called privacy rules do nothing to secure our privacy when they give a free pass to the worst privacy violator in history.

When you passed the largest government takeover of the Internet in history, why did Google get a free pass from following those rules?.

Why are you going out of your way to protect Google? Could it be because Google is Obama's biggest corporate patron? Could it be because Google and the federal government work so closely on so many projects?

You've seen the recent news no doubt: Regular meetings at the White House. Hundreds of employees going back and forth between Google and the Obama Administration, including at least 9 between Google and your FCC!

Americans have noticed and we're disgusted.

Sincerely,
Edward Gabrielse
